Nevada shows up with a new Democratic Senator, Key Pittman.

Another newspaper is projected for Catlettsburg, or, as some one has expressed it "is now preparing to spread its infantile wings and flutter far into the sphere of existence."

Gov. McCreary is receiving a great many letters in regard to making the race for United States Senate for the term beginning in 1915, the same year in which his term as Governor expires. The Governor has not yet decided whether or not he will enter the race.

FOR DEFIANCE.

After a few days' stay with relatives Brad Chaffin left Sunday via N. & W. for Defiance, O., where he holds a responsible place on a daily paper.

Is Teaching in Cincinnati.

Miss Margaret Lackey, of this city, is now a substitute teacher in the public schools of Cincinnati. She successfully passed the difficult examination required of all applicants for this position and is employed almost constantly.

HOW THEY STAND TODAY.

Following is the standing of the contestants up to last Wednesday night. Votes must be put in the ballot box before 6:00 p. m. Wednesday to be counted in the issue of that week. All votes coming in after that time will be published in the following week's issue. Votes must be placed in envelopes and the contestant's name and the number of votes in each envelope marked on the outside. This is important.

Second Floor Specials.

Our great ready-to-wear section offers many tempting bargains in seasonable merchandise a few of which we mention. The styles offered were purchased for this season, the variety is very good and the quality of the merchandise is unquestioned and up to our usual standard.

Women's and Children's Coats at Half Price

This is choice of our winter stocks and comprises a varied line of dependable styles and materials from which to make selections. Half price on these items means more to the customer than ordinary half price offers because when we say half price we half the price the goods were last offered to the customers. Not half of the original selling price. This makes a great many of these coats at really less than half value.

Other Half Price Items of Special Interest

Our line of wool dresses for women, misses and children is well worth special attention. Our line of flannelette dressing gowns and kimono at half price make another very attractive offer. The remainder of our wool suit stock at half price will afford an opportunity for purchases that should not be overlooked and several other items of like merit make the second floor one of special interest to the enterprising purchaser.

Special From the Millinery Department

Final clearance prices are in force in the millinery section. Our trimmed hats in values up to $25.00 are offered at $3.50 to close and those up to $12.50 are offered at $2.50 for final sale. We also offer a line of silk bonnets in values up to $5.00 at half price and our silk baby caps values from 25c to $4.00 will be on sale in the infants department at half price to close. In addition to the above our line of fruits and flowers, etc., in the millinery trimming stocks will be offered at most attractive figures.

resident of Straight creek, died Sunday of senility aged, eighty-six years was buried Tuesday in the family grave yard. Hammons and Rucker will soon finish their job of sawing on the farm of Eden Fannin and will move to Soldier where they have a $11,000 contract. John Fields, of Rush was transacting business on Bolts Fork last week. Theodore Coburn, a tobacco merchant of Glenwood, who employs a large number of hands at that place, met with what might have been a more serious accident while crossing Little Fork with a large load of tobacco, drawn by four yoke of oxen. The stream was swollen more than was expected, and Mr. Coburn not being well acquainted with the ford, attempted to cross. About middle ways of the stream the wagon overturned, but luckily came loose from the cattle. Mr. Coburn and the wagon floated down the creek some distance, being a poor swimmer he barely escaped with his life. While Mr. Coburn is well fixed financially he does not take the loss of the tobacco seriously but is thankful his life was spared. We have a mad dog scare in our community. Several have been seen about Bolts Fork and the vicinity of Glenwood. One attacked Jno. Queen near Glenwood but was luckily driven away by the aid of a hoe and was finally killed at Glenwood by Edgar Riffe.
